A Racine Garden Club Member's Responsibilities

First – Become acquainted with the members in the club and its purpose.

Second – Participate in club meetings and activities, objectively discuss topics, ideas and contributions presented by other members and in programs. Express your ideas, vote on motions, and play an active part in the club.

Third – Serve the club on a committee, as a Board member or project leader. Accept assignments or volunteer when possible and be responsible for your duties.

Fourth – Support club activities with your attendance and participation. Show interest in your club and be willing to pitch in to make the club successful.

Fifth – Be an ambassador for the club with your friends, relatives, neighbors, and co-workers who may be interested in garden ing or have a love of flowers, plants and nature. Determine if they might have an interest in joining our Racine Garden Club. If so, contact the Membership Chair.

By being an active member who supports club decisions, shows your interest, and shares your talents, you are contributing to the vitality and success of the club and its mission.

Board Meeting – First Monday of the Month

Business Meeting – Second Monday of the Month

All meetings held at Christ Church United Methodist on Washington Ave. unless specified otherwise in the RGC Handbook Calendar.

Member name tags should be worn to all meetings.

It is helpful to bring your club Handbook to meetings for reference as possible.
